

MEDIA ENQUIRIES

Please email our office and our publicist will be pleased to provide media kits (some downloadable on line) or to arrange interviews with the cast and production crews for the musicals - please note that the media kits are only available to suitably accredited media representatives and the media kits include;

- Full biographies and colour photos of the lead cast and creative staff for the musicals.
- Complimentary music recordings and videos (including web casts) from performances of the musicals.
- A voucher for a complimentary gift from one of our five online stores.
- Where applicable, and subject to availability, complimentary tickets to attend a performance of one of the musicals.
- Discounted advertising and sponsorship opportunities are available for your media outlet to be promoted in association with the musicals.
- Artwork and logos for the musicals.
- The musicals have associated “behind the scenes” documentaries and part documentary footage / full documentary broadcast rights can be licensed.
- Many of the musicals have associated “not for profit” or charity Foundations (such as the Red Roses Foundation for homeless initiatives) - information can be provided on these Foundations and we welcome media opportunities to promote the fund raising aspects of these Foundations.
- Enquire about licensing a recording or a live performance of the musicals for television broadcast or a live concert performance for a corporate media event.
